

Parent-to-Parent Games Galore

Boost your parenting skills: a series of five parent-planned interactive talks for parents of elementary and middle school students and recreational nights for students aged 3-14 held at MMS at 6:30 pm.

Weds. Oct. 15, 2008- “My Space, U Tube and Internet Safety” by Officer Mark Pepler, Milford Police Department.
Weather cancel date -Oct 16*

Tues. Nov. 18, 2008- “Mood Swings and an Attitude: Understanding Your Preteen and Teen” by Jane Richards-Jones, the Family Center of Greater Peterborough.
Weather cancel date-Nov 19*

Tues Jan 13, 2009- “Communicating with your Kids” by Ben Garber, Child Psychologist and author.
Weather cancel date- Jan 14*

Tues. Feb 10, 2009- “Boosting Self-Esteem” by TBA
Weather cancel date-Feb 11*

Weds. March 18, 2009- “Setting Limits” by The Youth Council of Nashua
Weather cancel date-March 19*

There is no fee for any of the talks. “Games Galore” a recreational program for students aged 3-14 will be held at the same time as the talks. “Games Galore” is free, if a parent/guardian attends the Parent to Parent Talk. If an adult does not attend, students will be charged $6.

* Cancellation due to weather will be on TV stations similar to school cancellations

Sponsored by:

NH Children’s Trust Fund / Community Action for Safe Teens (CAST) / MMS Enrichment/ The Youth Council, Nashua / Brookline Lions Club/ Brookline Women’s Club/Milford ES PTO.

