

Parent-to-Parent! Games Galore!

Presenting the first of a series of five parent-planned interactive talks for parents of elementary and middle school students and recreational nights for students aged 3-14 held at MMS:

Wednesday, October 15, 2008

6:30 to 8:00 PM

Milford Middle School

For the Parents: "My Space, U Tube and Internet Safety" by Officer Pepler, Milford Police Department.

Presenter Officer Mark Pepler is currently serving as the juvenile and gang officer and has over 32 years of law enforcement. Officer Pepler has trained with the Hillsborough County- South Task Force on Internet Safety, The NE State Police Information Network on My Space, and the Massachusetts Aggression Reduction Center on cyber-bullying.

For the Kids: Older students-gym games, supervised open gym and Fall craft. Younger students- Fall craft, stories and games. Snack-apples, caramel and whipped cream.

All activities run by Enrichment Program Staff. Program is free if your parent attends the Parent-to-Parent talk; otherwise $6.00.

Sponsored by: NH Children's Trust Fund / CAST (Community Action for Safe Teens) /MMS Enrichment/The Youth Council, Nashua.

For more information contact Libby Anderson at 672-9876 or mmsenrich@charter.net.

Games Galore: Please return to your student's main office by Friday Oct 10.

Student's name: _____

Grade: _____ Program: (Please Circle): Preschool, Elementary, MMS

Homeroom/Classroom Teacher: _____

Home Phone: _____

Yes I plan to attend the Parent-to-Parent talk (no fee); I am enclosing $6.00
(checks payable to MMS Enrichment)